Boliden publishes Annual and Sustainability Report 2021

Boliden's Annual and Sustainability Report for 2021 is now available at www.boliden.com.

The report highlights the company's development and performance within areas such as productivity, investments and climate. The printed version of the Annual and Sustainability Report will be available from 30 March and distributed to the shareholders who have requested it.

Boliden has also published the Annual Report in Swedish in European Single Electronic Format (ESEF).

In addition, a sustainability index in accordance with the Global Reporting Initiatives (GRI) Standards has been published. It also includes Boliden's communication on progress (COP) in relation to the UN Global Compact's ten principles as well as the disclosure to the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures (TCFD). Since 2021, Boliden also reports in accordance to the Sustainability Accounting Standards Board (SASB) and the International Council on Mining and Metals (ICMM).
